Most Direct from Buffalo:

90 West toward Erie. to Route 219 South.

Route 219 through Springville, Ellicottville and to Salamanca.

Cross bridge in Salamanca over Allegany River.

First left to I-86 WEST / (formerly Rte. 17.)

Left onto the first on-ramp of 1-86, west-bound towards Jamestown.
[If you come to exit 22, Bradford, you went the wrong way.]

Take Exit #18, Allegany State Park, Quaker Area, Rt. 280.

Left turn onto Route 280 is your only choice.

Follow Route 280 four and a half miles to Quaker Lake (on your left).
Stay along the lake into the Allegany State Park.
[Do NOT follow Route 280 to the right.]

The road becomes ASP 3 here. Continue on this road and watch for the Camp Turner sign and driveway about 1 mile after the end of Quaker Lake.

[If you get to Weller Trail, you've passed Camp Turner.]
