Brief Job Description

Position involves working with the Pastor and the "Spiritual Life and Worship Committee" to oversee and design the music at the church. Two other musicians are already engaged and plan/execute the music for two of the three weekend Masses. One of those Masses is the Adult Choir at 11am on Sunday. In addition to overseeing these two employees, the Director of Music would be responsible for the third weekend Mass (9am Sunday or 4:30 pm Saturday), special services, and holy day Masses. Availability for weddings and funerals is preferred. The parish is looking for an energetic person who is excited about starting new musical groups such as a Children's Choir, a Teen Mass Band, Cantors, and small musical groups for liturgical and para liturgical event such as Solemn Vespers, devotions, and seasonal events. A Graduate Degree in Music is preferred, but an undergraduate degree is acceptable. In addition, professional experience is seriously considered. Please send a resume to the email address listed above. This part-time position (10-15 hrs. per week), with salaryipends for special events, totals $20,000/year.
